The Better Schools Campaign.

A State-wide campaign for better schools for Texas children will be held in Texas during the month of October. The purposes of this campaign are to carry the proposed amendment to Article 3, Section VII, of the State Constitution, to inform parents of Texas as to the school situation, and to arouse interest, enthusiasm, and State pride for better schools.

THE AMENDMENT.

The proposed amendment does not raise taxes. It simply grants to each school district the power to provide for its schools such support as it deems necessary. This privilege is already enjoyed by our large cities. This amendment would place small schools on an equality with city schools in the matter of LOCAL SELF GOVERNMENT. Half of the States of the Union have no limit to the amount of school tax which a place may vote, and no disastrous results have followed upon this freedom. In the remaining States, the tax limit varies, from fifty cents to two dollars and fifty cents, on the one hundred dollars of valuation. In only two States, Texas and Virginia, is it as low as fifty cents.

OUR SITUATION DESPERATE

During the session of 1919-20, about 2000 teaching positions were vacant in about 50,000 Texas children had no school at all last year. Approximately 400,000 children were taught by teachers whose preparation was not beyond that of the eighth grade. The United States reports a teacher shortage of about 100,000 elementary teachers and 20,000 high school teachers. States which make it worth while to teach, will soon attract the best of the teacher supply. In Texas a large number of schools were kept open last year only through private subscription. The people will not keep this up indefinitely. Many districts desire to vote on adequate school tax, but are prevented from doing so, by the constitutional restriction.

THE AMENDMENT OUR ONLY RECOURSE

The $4,000,000 appropriation made by the legislature was a temporary stop-gap, granted to tide over the year that must elapse before the amendment can be relief, in case it passes. The State tax rate has been lowered, so that there will be no surplus in 1920-21 to help the schools. Moreover, many members of the legislature have declared that, if the people vote down this amendment in October, they will make no more appropriations for the schools from general revenues—that they will even discontinue the special $2,000,000 appropriation for rural schools.

Little Lorena Huegele Died From Snake Bite.

Lorena, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Huegele, who reside a few miles north from town, was bitten by a rattlesnake Monday, 9 a. m., and died at 7:30 p. m. in spite of all two doctors could do. The children were playing at a swing near the yard fence, which was built of woven wire, the rattler had tried to get through the fence and was caught in the wire and evidently mad, and struck the child four times. Mr. J. B. Huegele notified us at 6 a. m. Tuesday and we secured the service of Rev. F. F. Bledsoe to conduct the funeral, which occurred at 3 p. m. at the family burying ground.—Devine News.

Mr. and Mrs. Huegele have a large circle of friends here who are grieved and shocked over the horrible fate that overtook their little daughter. The little girl was the only grand child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reitzer, of Dunlay.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reitzer and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Oefinger of Yancey and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Batot and daughter and Mrs. Robt. Reitzer of Hondo attended the funeral Tuesday.

Schools Get State Aid.

County Superintendent W. N. Saathoff has secured a state aid for five of the Medina rural schools the total aggregating $2,045.00, distributed as follows: Black Creek No. 1, District No. 12, $450.00; Black Creek No. 2, District 12, $310.00; Yancey, District No. 16, $585.00; Seco, District No. 21, $0.00; and Dunlay, District No. 33, $0.00; quite snug sums which will go long ways to help make better schools of those fortunate enough to be included in the distribution, and which reflects credit on Prof. Saathoff in his efforts to help the schools. To the Voters of Precinct 3.

As I got into the race for County Commissioner of Precinct No. 3 too late to get my name printed on the election tickets, I take this means of giving all my friends to write my name on the tickets. The last column on the right hand side of the ticket could be used for this purpose. Promising the people of Prec. No. 3 the very best service I am capable of, could they honor me with the position their commissioner, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

J. A. BATOT.

Candidate for County Commissioner, Precinct No. 3.

For County Commissioner.

We are authorized to announce

J. A. BATOT

a candidate for the office of County Commissioner of Precinct No. 3, Medina County, at the November election.

Hasslbauer-Holzhaus.

A marriage of much interest to a host of Medina County people was solemnized at the St. John's Rectory on Thursday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock when Miss Marguerite Holzhaus became the bride of Mr. Feri Hasslbauer, Rev. Father F. Pallanche officiating.

Mrs. Hasslbauer is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holzhaus, of San Antonio, and was born and reared to girlhood in Castroville where her father was editor and proprietor of the Castroville Quill for a number of years.

After a few days visit to the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. J. Droitecourt, Mr. and Mrs. Hasslbauer will make their home in San Antonio where the groom holds a lucrative position with the San Antonio Machine & Supply Company.

The Anvil Herald joins the many friends of the young couple in Medina County in wishing them "bon voyage" down life's pathway.

Oil News.

Medina Oil Development Co. is drilling around 650 feet with all formations conforming with our geological report. We could not ask for better indications for a good well. Have just gone through 25 feet of soft blue sandy rock and are now in 20 feet of blue sandy formation, which is the Taylor Marl. This is highly saturated with oil and shows considerable oil on the slush-pit continually. Another oil sand is expected to be hit in a few days which will produce more oil which can be added to what we already have. The well is in fine condition to be continued until we reach the Austin Chalk. Mgr.

AN IMPORTANT LETTER

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.—"In my early married life I became very ill with feminine trouble and no doctoring or medicines gave me any relief until I started to take Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I was down in bed, unable to do my own housework, but it was only a short time before I was feeling stronger and all my pains left me. I took about six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and can say positively that it cured me of all feminine trouble for I have been in perfect health ever since. I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to all women suffering with inward trouble."—MRS. ANNIE F. EDWARDS, 224 Rogers Street.

AMERICAN RED CROSS TO GIVE RURAL HELP

Program for Public Health and Community Welfare Is Now Well Under Way.

Rural communities and towns of less than 8,000 population benefit in a very large part by the public health and community welfare work of the American Red Cross. Almost all of the 3,600 Red Cross chapters have some rural sections in their territory. Therefore the Red Cross Rural Service.

Briefly, the purpose of Rural Service is to assist people to get out of life more health, wealth and happiness. In this purpose public health instruction and general educational progress of both children and adults play a big part.

Recreation is found to be one of the biggest needs in rural life. There is lack of sufficient play-life for the children and social life for the adults. Picnics, pageants, debating clubs, baseball leagues, community singing and other social events which bring the people of surrounding communities together have been organized and carried on under the guidance of Red Cross rural workers to great advantage. In many instances solving recreational problems and getting people together proves to be the awakening of the community to other conditions which may be improved by united action.

As a result of community organization, townships in which there had been neither plans nor interest in community progress have been organized to work together with the unified purpose of bringing their community up to the most enlightened standards. Lecture and musical entertainment courses have been started as a result of community meetings, as well as circulating libraries, Red Cross schools of instruction in Home Nursing, Care of the Sick and First Aid. In the larger towns the need for restaurants and public comfort stations is being met. Playgrounds for the children have been established and recreational activities worked out for the year.

In order that there may be concerted effort in carrying on the programs of the various welfare agencies in the rural districts, Red Cross Rural Service helps the organizations already on the ground. The main object of the service is to lead a band everywhere and take the lead only where necessary.

Sometimes an easy-going person is hard to get rid of.

When one suspects, he is right at least half the time.

All the disagreeable people do not live on cross streets.

COUNTY SUPT. McDONALD QUOTES JAS. J. HILL

Dallas, Texas.—"It is a brutal bed rock truth, that James J. Hill uttered when he said, 'If you want to know if you are going to be a success or a failure in life, the test is simple and infallible; are you able to save money? If not, drop out. You will fail as sure as you live. You may not think so, but the seed of success is not in you.'" said A. F. McDonald, County Superintendent of Dallas County, when a representative of the Savings Division had advocated children saving and investing in War Savings Stamps and other government Savings Securities.

"That saying of Hill is plastered all over my boy's room. It is on the head of his bed; it is stuck on his mirror, it is glued into his bank book, he sees it on his check book. I try to have him form the habit of asking himself whenever he spends, 'am I buying something worth, to me, what it costs?' He is now headed on that path. If he reads it continually, there is nothing to fear for his future. He will own his share of Treasury Certificates and Liberty Bonds."

We bought in the United States this year $370,570,172 worth of chewing gum, cameras and sporting goods, essentials. Were the amount spent for Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds at $33.33 it would have bought $444,000,000 in 4% bonds and would have brought in annual interest $18,570,000. Shall it be chewing gum or Liberty Notes?

For the timid investors, who have been frightened by the fluctuations of Liberty Bonds, the government provides War Savings Stamps and Registered Treasury Savings Certificates. They are redeemable by the government at any time and are always worth more than they cost.

Cream doesn't collect at the bottom of the pan; savings don't accumulate at the bottom of the pocket book. Skim the cream of your pay with a War Savings Stamp every payday.

Scriptural Cheer.

General Leonard Wood said at a dinner in Washington:

"The front was a merry place, a grimly merry place. I wasn't long at the front, but long enough to see that. 'I remember a motto that I saw scrawled over the entrance of a very dangerously situated dugout. It said: 'When you're down think of Jonah. He came out all right.'—Denver Times.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect the Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE. 20.

Mangold-Biediger.

Mr. Howard H. Mangold and Miss Alma Biediger were happily married Tuesday morning, Oct. 12, 1920, at 9:00 o'clock in St. Mary's Catholic Church.

The bridal party entered the church under the strains of a pretty Wedding March in the following order: Flower girls, Marcella Biediger and Mabel Tondre, the bride and best man, Arthur Biediger; the groom and maid of honor, Miss Josephine Mangold; Miss Alice Biediger and John Rihn, Miss Emma Biediger and Richard Biediger, Rev. John Heintzmeier performed the wedding ceremony in a solemn and impressive manner, which was followed by a Nuptial High Mass during which the bride and groom with all their attendants approached the communion rail and received the Holy Eucharist in a body making this a truly Catholic Church wedding.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party and invited guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents where an all day celebration took place.

The bride is the second oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Biediger and has lived here with her parents for several years, during which time she has made many friends. While the groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mangold from here and is a progressive young stockman and farmer near Noonan, where they will make their home.—Lacoste Ledger.

STOMACH CATARRH

Cause untold misery and suffering, all of which is needless. Pe-ru-na acts as quickly and surely on catarrh of the stomach and bowels as in case of that common form, nasal catarrh.

Pains Were Terrific

Read how Mrs. Albert Gregory, of R. F. D. No. 1, Blufford, Ill., got rid of her ills. "During . . . I was awfully weak . . . My pains were terrific. I thought I would die. The bearing-down pains were actually so severe I could not stand the pressure of my hands on the lower part of my stomach . . . I simply felt as if life was for but a short time. My husband was worried . . . One evening, while reading the Birthday Almanac, he came across a case similar to mine, and went straight for some Cardui for me to try.

The Woman's Tonic

"I took it faithfully and the results were immediate," adds Mrs. Gregory. "I continued to get better, all my ills left me, and I went through . . . with no further trouble. My baby was fat and strong, and myself—thank God—am once more hale and hearty, can walk miles, do my work, though 44 years old, feel like a new person. All I owe to Cardui." For many years Cardui has been found helpful in building up the system when run down by disorders peculiar to women.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Stephens were down from Medina Lake this week and were pleasant callers at this office Friday morning. Mr. Stephens is the efficient game warden up at the Lake and is kept quite busy keeping the game hogs in check. Duck-shooting has been good up at the Lake, but as hunters have been numerous a great many of the ducks have been driven away. On the way down Thursday Mr.
Stephens claims to have seen 50,000 chicken hawks. When we showed a disposition to question his statement he jumped up to 100,000; as our supply of naughts is limited we had to accept his first statement. We saw trouble ahead if he kept on increasing the number at the rate of 50,000 a second.
He says the whole heavens were obscured by the hawks which seemed to be emigrating. He thinks the people, particularly poultry raisers, should inaugurate a war of extermination against all hawks except the sparrow hawk, which he regards as a friend of the farmer as that member of the hawk family regards field mice as a delicacy.
While here Mrs. Stephens qualified as a voter, and it would be safe to wager that T. H. McGregor, an old friend of the family, will get one vote at her polling place.

Tarpley Items.

J. H. Burns made a trip to San Antonio by auto last week.

Andrew Sprott was in Tarpley last Thursday shopping.

THE FAIR.

The Tarpley fair was pulled off on schedule time Saturday the 16th, and from early in the morning people came in bringing their exhibits that had not been placed the day before, and the visitors came early and late. The fair was a decided success from beginning to end.

The farm and garden exhibits were the best ever displayed at any fair west of San Antonio. Corn, cotton, maize, wheat, oats, potatoes, (sweet and Irish) and vegetables of all kinds that people marveled at were on display. Canned goods of all kinds, also preserves that looked good enough for a king were seen.

Sheep, goats, horses, mules, and Jersey cattle were tied all over the place, as good as can be found anywhere. Wool and mohair by single fleeces, looked beautiful.

Several pens of hogs, pure blooded stock, Essex, Duroc, and Poland China breeds were represented.

Chicken fanciers could find anything they desired on the fair grounds.

The judges, Messrs. Ed. Mansfield, and Randa Thalman from Bandera and W. N. Saathoff from Hondo pronounced this fair the best ever seen west of San Antonio, and the people are already discussing a fair for 1921.

W. N. Saathoff, County Superintendent of Medina County, made a splendid talk on education, which was appreciated very much.

Mr. F. G. Muennink was seen at the fair, but he was so busy electioneering that he forgot he was in Bandera County, for he told us he would carry Tarpley solid.

HEMPHILL EXPLAINS ORGANIZATION OF NEAR EAST RELIEF

Prominent New York Banker Says Aim Is 100% Relief of Starving Peoples.

"Just what is the Near East Relief? Is the question that many people are asking whose interests have been awakened to the terrible conditions existing in the Levant today," says Alexander J. Hemphill, President of the Guarantee Trust Company and well known New York banker and financier. "In prosaic facts, the Near East Relief is a body incorporated by act of Congress the object of which is 'to provide relief and to assist in the repatriation, rehabilitation and re-establishment of suffering and dependent people of the Near East and adjacent areas; to provide for the care of orphans and widows and to promote the social, economic and industrial welfare of those who have been rendered destitute or dependent, directly or indirectly, by the vicissitudes of war, the cruelties of men or other causes beyond their control."

100 Per Cent Relief.

"The aim of the organization is 100 per cent relief, the relief which puts those aided on a self-supporting basis, which instills in them a confidence for the future, places in their hands the means with which to begin life anew, and in their hearts the courage to go on. Work, that is the prescription subscribed and provided by those loyal men and women who have journeyed into perilous places for the sake of their fellow men; to make these people independent for the future, to encourage the flickering fire of national pride.

"There are $2,291 workers employed in the industrial establishments of the Near East Relief, where wool is furnished for the women to spin and weave, and all the girls who are strong enough are washing wool, sewing beds, grinding and sifting wheat, tailoring and learning to make lace. The big problem is to make these women independent.

"About 500 American men and women, Near East Relief workers, are now in the field, including 36 eminent physicians and surgeons, 76 nurses, 16 mechanics, 15 industrial experts, 16 agriculturists, 14 bacteriologists, 197 relief workers, 25 supply and transport workers, 19 teachers, 20 administrators, 34 secretaries, 7 engineers and 45 army officers.

Where Money Goes.

"Funds for relief purposes are distributed in two ways: First, the various relief centers are authorized by the Executive Committee to draw sight drafts on New York for specific amounts each month; second, by supplies purchased in America, the major portion of which are shipped to the committee warehouses at Derinde and the remainder either to Beyrouth or Batoum.

"The relief is rapidly expanding and meeting the situation, but the future depends on the continuation of American support."

According to Mr. Hemphill, the need for American help to see the destitute peoples of the Near East through the crisis of present conditions is greater now than ever before on account of the uncertainty as to the future, the treachery of the Turkish government and the danger of bolshevism from Russia which threatens to engulf the whole of Armenia.

Who Direct the Work.

Mr. Hemphill is the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Near East Relief. Other members are Dr. James L. Barton, Secretary of the Foreign Department of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions; Edwin M. Bulkley, banker, of Spencer Trust & Co., New York; Judge Abram I. Elkus, former United States Ambassador to Turkey; Harold A. Hatch, a well known New York cotton man; Herbert Hoover; William B. Miller, one of the Secretaries of the Inter church World Movement; Henry Morgenthau, United States Ambassador to Mexico; Edgar Rickard of the American Relief Administration; Charles A. Vickrey, who is Secretary of the Near East Relief, and Dr. Stanley Whit secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church.

Holstein Club Meeting.

The Hondo Holstein Calf Club met at the school house at 4 o'clock Oct. 21, 1920. The president called the house to order. Mr. Merritt made a short talk on how to care for the calves. He said each child should do his own feeding and should carry his calf each day. Howard Short explained that Amandus Muennink's calf was dead and moved that each member give a dollar to buy him another. The motion carried.

The President, Milton Schweers, read the constitution of the club.

There being no further business, the club adjourned.

The plumber's bill was $125. RAT-SNAP cleaned the rodent out." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by W. H. Windrow and Holloway Bros.

Dehydrating Foods.

"Dehydrating Foods" is an authoritative book by Mrs. A. Louise Andrea on the dehydrating or drying of fruits, vegetables, meats and fish, and their preservation and preparation for food. It gives practical directions for successful dehydration, both for the home and by commercial establishments, with a comprehensive list of recipes for cooking and serving the products.

This is the book of the hour, coming just at the time when under-production and high prices make it imperative to conserve every bushel of farm, orchard and garden produce.

Dehydrating or drying is the superior method of food preservation. No cans, jars or tedious canning process necessary. Merely the water removed from food materials, leaving all flavorings and nourishment values intact. "The water taken out of the high cost of living", so to speak.

Perishable produce is preserved easily, economically and advantageously by dehydrating, for homes, hotels, restaurants, boarding houses, schools, institutions, ships and dining cars. In short, any where a supply of food needs to be stored and kept. Pounds are reduced to ounces simply by removal of water content. Money, work, time and spoilage are saved; weight, bulk and storage space are reduced astonishingly. Dehydration furnishes the maximum of good living at the minimum expense, and Mrs. Andrea's handy little volume tells how it is done.

This book should be in every home and in every school library. When dehydration becomes more generally practical in America abundant crops of perishable produce will be regarded as a blessing, insuring a bountiful food supply, instead of being, as it is now regarded, a disaster, bringing financial ruin to the growers without any compensating benefit to the consumer because the surplus is allowed to go to waste. Buy this book and learn how to preserve your surplus produce. It can be had at a very moderate price from the publishers, The Churchill Company, 2a Park Street, Boston, Mass.

Nature Tells You.

As Many a Hondo Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are weak, Nature tells you about it. The urine is nature's index. Infrequent or too frequent passage. Other disorders suggest kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for disordered kidneys.

Hondo people testify to their worth.

O. H. Getter, retired painter, Hondo says: "Several years ago I was taken with a terrible backache and my kidneys acted irregularly. On stooping over it was an effort for me to straighten up again. Nights I had to get up frequently to pass the kidney secretions, which were scanty, highly colored and scalding. I felt tired and worn out all the time and had no ambition to do anything. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and started their use. After taking two boxes of Doan's my back was strong and my kidneys acted regularly."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Getter had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

GOV'T OPERATION OUT OF POLITICS

Party Leaders Convinced by Results of National Canvass of Editors.

VINDICATES FORMER POLL.

Overwhelming Veto Like That of Year
Before From Both Sides of Political Fence.

Washington.—Inner circles of both political parties here are greatly interested in the results of a national poll on the question of government operation among over 5,000 newspaper editors throughout the country. With 86 per cent of these editors, regardless of political faith, giving it as their impartial opinion that the public is more than ever opposed to the government going into business in competition with its citizens, observers here see little chance that either political party will find it a profitable campaign issue.

In the opinion of party leaders this sort of a canvass among newspaper editors is the best possible index of public opinion. They recall a similar questionnaire sent out a year ago in connection with the proposition that the government take over the railroads permanently. Replies at that time from approximately the same number of editors showed 83 per cent against the principle of government operation. They recall also that within ten days from publication of the result of the former questionnaire the sentiment for return of the railroads to their owners had definitely crystallized.

Comparison of present results in detail with those of a year ago convinces the political student not only that these editors have been accurate in their judgment, but that party considerations played no part in forming it. From Democratic and supposedly radical Texas, for example, the present questionnaire brought replies from editors of 244 papers, only three of which are Republican. Yet the percentage against government operation was 92, which is exactly the same as that given by 200 editors from Republican Michigan, among whom were representatives of only three Democratic papers. Other states that pair percentages significantly are Massachusetts and Nevada, with 100; Connecticut and South Carolina, with 97; Maine and West Virginia, with 96; Kentucky and New York, with 91; Missouri and Pennsylvania, with 89; Ohio and Oklahoma, with 87.

WOULD GLADLY GO 100 MILES FOR IT

That Is What Mrs. Burns Says
After Taking Tanlac—Gains
Nine Pounds.

"I had to go sixteen miles to get my first bottle of Tanlac, but after the way it helped me I would gladly go a hundred miles rather than be without it," said Mrs. George M. Burns, of 1900 Spruce avenue, Kansas City, Mo. "For six months I had stomach trouble and indigestion so bad that what I ate gave me no strength at all," continued Mrs. Burns. "I had no appetite whatever and was so nervous even the barking of a dog would completely upset me. My kidneys gave me a lot of trouble and I suffered dreadfully with pains in my back; I couldn't get any relief at all and finally I got so weak and run-down I couldn't do my housework.

"A friend advised me to take Tanlac and I had to go all the way from Chataqua, Kan., where I was then living, to Sedan to get it. But that was surely a profitable trip, for the Tanlac helped me right from the start. My appetite picked up and I can now eat anything I want and it does me good, too, for I have already gained nine pounds, am strong enough to do all my housework and am getting stronger every day. My nerves are steady as can be and I am in better general health than for many years. I have recommended Tanlac to a lot of my friends and every one of them has been benefited by it."

Tanlac is sold in Hondo by W. H. Windrow; in Castroville by Joseph Courand & Co.; and in Dunlay by Louis A. Haby.

Eames-Brightly.

A New Definition.

"What is a widow?" asked the teacher of a Sunday school class, the subject of the day's lesson being the widow of Ham.

There was silence until she nodded to a little boy on her left, and said: "You know what a widow is, don't you?" for she knew that the little boy's mother was one.

"Yes'm," he answered, "it's a lady what takes in washing!"—Edinburgh Scotsman.

Crying For Bread

Photo International.
New East Relief Workers Distributing Bread to Newly Arrived Armenian Refugees in Constantinople.

The Constantinople district of the Near East Relief is wonderfully organized. All the bakeries which formerly supplied the Turkish army, under German management, have been taken over by the Near East Relief, and 20,000 loaves of bread are baked and distributed daily. Placed side by side, these loaves would make a line 280 miles long for the five months that the Near East Relief has operated its consolidated bakeries in Constantinople.

The Near East Relief, with offices in every state, is asking for funds to go on with this work.

Harem Victim Tells Story

Stolen from her home on the night before her wedding and imprisoned for five years in a Turkish harem, Aghavni Millian, a beautiful nineteen-year-old Armenian girl from Bitlis, has at last been discovered by her lover and through the assistance of the Near East Relief forcibly taken from her master and brought to one of the American Rescue Homes in Constantinople. Here she will stay until arrangements can be made for her marriage and her return to her old home.
"My story—it is like hundreds of others," Aghavni said simply. "I was stolen from my home on the night that the massacres first began in Bitlis. It was the night before I was to have been married. I was just folding my wedding veil away when the Turkish soldiers broke into the house. They carried me off. I—They took me up to Constantinople to the house of the man"— She stopped and put one hand over her eyes, a hand that bore the tell-tale tattoo of her Turkish master.

"But what does my story matter?" she exclaimed. "I am only one of so many. It is my people and their future that matters. Somehow we must rebuild our nation and show to the Turks who tried to beat out our life and to the whole world that, despite what we have suffered, Armenia is still unconquerable."

Aghavni Millian is, as she says, only one of many. It is estimated that one hundred thousand girls are still held captive in Turkish harems. The Near East Relief, America's official agent in Armenia, is making this work of rescue one of the most important features of its program, and it is to them and the support they receive from the American people that Aghavni's unfortunate sisters, still captive, must look for their release.

WAITING FOR US TO SET THE TABLE

A table twenty-four miles long is plainly an extension table and that is just the length that would seat all of the orphans now being fed by the Near East Relief. This table is set in sections all over the hills of Asia Minor, Syria, Armenia and in Northern Persia. It is not in one piece. The Turks, who still keep the Armenians in a state of terror, do not allow it.

But there the table is, seated on both sides with orphans—Syrian and Assyrian, Greek and Armenian, Jew and Christian—all rescued from the fear of the Turk and under the care of American men and women.

Most of the children are cared for in 229 American supported orphanages. The first ceremony in receiving these starved, almost naked children, is to clean them up. They are not only emaciated, but dirty with sores and vermin—60 hospitals and over 6,000 beds are kept full of the little sufferers.

But the children keep changing. Last year they were all thin and pitiful; now it is the newcomers who are thin. The orphans who have been from six months to a year in American care are well fed and well clothed.

Best of all for a new Near East which surely must come out of all this distress, every child old enough is being taught a trade which will make him self supporting.

They are a thrifty lot, these little parentless exiles. From their scant store of bread they always carry a portion in a small bag about their necks—they fear the day of another killing, another drive into the desert.

They hoard the shoes sent from America until snow flies—they remember their barefoot pain in the snows last spring.

They cling to their new found friends. Every day other little waifs find a place in the orphanages and are told of the generous people of the United States. Soon the entrances will be crowded with children frozen out from their temporary summer quarters.

Then the table of the Near East Relief must be extended—many, many new leaves will be needed, and America is asked to set the table.

Armenian Refugees Line Up for Food.

As cold weather sets in refugees are pouring into Near East Relief centers. This group is fed daily in the former Russian barracks at Alexandropol, one of the safest cities in the Caucasus.

DO BUSINESS OVER COFFEE

In Asiatic Cities the Merchants Gather in Shops to Discuss Affairs of Trade.

Streets in the bazar districts of Asiatic cities are only eight to ten feet wide. The larger shops are eight by ten and the smaller ones five by six feet. In each bazar is a khan for every ten or twelve shops. These khans are two stories high, with an open court in the center and rooms on the four sides all opening into the court. A door leads from the open court into the street. Rooms are let to different storekeepers for storage purposes.

Each bazar has a coffee shop, which is a large, open place covered partly by a roof, where are a number of wooden settees ranged in rows. Any visitor who sits is first given a cup of Turkish coffee and then a narghile or native pipe filled with Shirza tobacco. The charge for coffee and the use of the pipe is about 2 cents. Here the merchants gather to discuss trade bills, and bank representatives to check the number of bills to be taken up and secure data for exchange rates for bills and foreign coin. Rates are practically determined in the coffee shops.

No Doubt About It.

"We have called on a very serious matter, sir!" said the spokeslady of the group who had invaded the Peruvia tavern. "It is rumored that the piano tuner and the woman with him who are your guests are not married." "Mizzus Chinn and ladies," replied the landlord, "if you'll excuse me, you're barking up the wrong tree. Them folks are married, all right enough. Ever since they have been here they've both found fault with everything the other'n has done."

"If you'll step to the foot of the stairs now you can hear 'em yelling and cussing as usual. There ain't any doubt about their being married."—Kansas City Star.

A Long Story.

"Tommy, do you mean to tell me it took you a whole hour to go from here to the corner grocery and return?"

"Yes, ma. It wasn't my fault that a man in a big car ran into a man in a little car, 'n' th' man in th' little car called th' man in the big car a bad name 'n' th' man in th' big car got out an' said he'd hit th' man in th' little car 'n' th' man in th' little car said, 'Just you try it!' 'n' then a cop came, 'n' then—"

"Never mind. I'll telephone the grocer to send up that pound of butter."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Causes of Eye Strain.

The efficiency of the eye as a working instrument is reduced materially by the presence of a distracting object in the field of vision, more particularly if near to the eye and close to the line of sight. Such objects are the dark and prominent rims of tortoise-shell glasses, curved-eye shades with dark linings, and the like. By tending to cause the eye reflexly to adjust for them rather than for their work, these objects subject the eye to unnecessary and harmful muscular strain, eye experts declare.
